Dear Mei Ling,

Re: Offer of Employment – Customer Success Associate

We are pleased to offer you employment with BrightPath Solutions Pte. Ltd. (the "Company") on the terms and conditions set out in this letter (the "Agreement"). Please read this Agreement carefully. If you accept, sign and return it as set out in the Acceptance section at the end of this letter.

In this Agreement, "you" and "Employee" mean Lim Mei Ling, and "we", "us" and "our" mean the Company. Headings are for convenience only and do not affect the meaning of any clause.

1. Appointment and Commencement

1.1 The Company appoints you to the position of Customer Success Associate, reporting to the Customer Success Manager or any other person the Company may appoint from time to time.

1.2 Your employment will start on 1 December 2026 (the "Commencement Date"), subject to you meeting all conditions in this Agreement, including the payment set out in Clause 5.3.

1.3 This offer is conditional on (a) satisfactory reference checks; (b) you providing true and complete information in your application; and (c) you being legally allowed to work in Singapore. If any condition is not met, the Company may withdraw this offer or end your employment without notice.

1.4 Your employment is full-time and permanent, subject to the probation period in Clause 4.

2. Duties and Responsibilities

2.1 Your main duties include: (a) responding to customer enquiries by phone, email and live chat; (b) onboarding new customers onto the Company's software platform; (c) logging and following up on customer issues until they are resolved; (d) preparing weekly customer feedback reports; and (e) any other reasonable duties the Company assigns to you.

2.2 You agree to perform your duties faithfully and diligently, to follow all lawful and reasonable instructions given by the Company, and to comply with the Company's policies and Employee Handbook as updated from time to time.

2.3 During your employment, you must not take up any other paid work, business or directorship without the Company's prior written consent.

2.4 The Company may change your job title, duties or reporting line to meet business needs, provided the new duties are reasonably suited to your skills and experience.

3. Place of Work and Working Hours

3.1 Your normal place of work is the Company's office at 88 Fictional Avenue, #10-01, Singapore 000000. The Company may ask you to work from another location in Singapore or remotely when needed.

3.2 Your normal working hours are Monday to Friday, 9.00 am to 6.00 pm, with a one-hour unpaid lunch break, making 40 hours per week.

3.3 You may be required to work on up to two (2) Saturdays per month, from 9.00 am to 1.00 pm, to support customer launches. The Company will give you at least three (3) days' notice of any Saturday work.

3.4 You may be required to work reasonable additional hours to meet business needs. Overtime will be paid in accordance with the Employment Act 1968 where it applies to you. Where it does not apply, your salary already includes payment for any additional hours worked.

4. Probation

4.1 You will be on probation for the first three (3) months of your employment (the "Probation Period").

4.2 The Company may extend the Probation Period by up to a further three (3) months if it considers your performance or conduct has not yet reached the required standard. The Company will inform you in writing of any extension.

4.3 You will be confirmed in your position only after the Company informs you in writing that you have successfully completed probation. Until then, you remain on probation.

4.4 During the Probation Period, either party may end your employment by giving one (1) week's written notice, or one (1) week's salary in place of notice.

5. Salary and Payment

5.1 Your basic salary is S$3,200 (three thousand two hundred Singapore dollars) per month, before any deductions required by law, including your CPF contributions.

5.2 Your salary will be paid monthly in arrears, no later than the 7th day of the following month, by bank transfer to a Singapore bank account in your name.

5.3 Before the Commencement Date, you must pay the Company a one-time onboarding and training kit fee of S$350 (three hundred and fifty Singapore dollars). This fee covers your laptop setup, system access, uniform and training materials. The fee is non-refundable, including if you leave or your employment ends during the Probation Period. Your employment will not start until this fee is received.

5.4 The fee in Clause 5.3 must be paid within two (2) days of signing this Agreement by bank transfer or PayNow to the Company's onboarding coordinator, as follows:

Account name: Tan Wei Ling Bank: Sample Bank Singapore Account number: 000-000000-0 PayNow: +65 8000 0000

Please use your full name as the payment reference and send a screenshot of the transfer to hr@brightpath-example.sg.

5.5 Your salary will be reviewed once a year, normally in January. Any increase is at the Company's sole discretion and depends on your performance and the Company's results. A salary review does not mean your salary will be increased.

5.6 You may be eligible for a discretionary year-end bonus. Whether a bonus is paid, and how much, is entirely at the Company's discretion. You must be employed and not serving notice on the payment date to receive any bonus.

6. Deductions

6.1 The Company will make deductions from your salary as required by law, including your employee CPF contributions.

6.2 You agree that the Company may also deduct from your salary, as allowed under the Employment Act 1968: (a) deductions for absence from work without leave; (b) recovery of any salary advance or overpayment made to you; and (c) the cost of any Company property damaged or not returned by you, up to the limits allowed by law.

6.3 The Company will give you an itemised payslip each month showing your salary, any additional payments and all deductions made.

7. Annual Leave

7.1 You are entitled to fourteen (14) working days of paid annual leave for each completed year of service, earned on a pro-rata basis during your first year.

7.2 You may only take annual leave after completing the Probation Period, unless the Company agrees otherwise in writing.

7.3 All annual leave must be applied for through the Company's HR system at least two (2) weeks in advance and approved by your manager. The Company may refuse leave during peak periods.

7.4 You may carry forward up to five (5) days of unused annual leave to the next calendar year. Carried-forward leave must be used by 31 March of that year, or it will be forfeited. Unused leave will not be paid out in cash, except as required by law when your employment ends.

8. Medical Leave and Benefits

8.1 After three (3) months of service, you are entitled to paid outpatient sick leave and paid hospitalisation leave in accordance with the Employment Act 1968.

8.2 All sick leave must be supported by a medical certificate from a registered medical practitioner, submitted within 48 hours of your return to work. Absence without a valid medical certificate will be treated as unpaid leave.

8.3 After confirmation, you will be covered under the Company's group hospitalisation insurance. The Company will reimburse outpatient medical consultation fees of up to S$30 per visit, up to S$300 per calendar year, subject to the Company's claims policy.

9. Public Holidays and Expenses

9.1 You are entitled to all gazetted public holidays in Singapore. If you are required to work on a public holiday, the Company will give you either an extra day's salary or a day off in lieu, at the Company's choice.

9.2 The Company will reimburse reasonable business expenses that you incur while carrying out your duties, if they were approved in advance and claimed within thirty (30) days with valid receipts.

9.3 Travel between your home and your normal place of work is not a business expense and will not be reimbursed.

10. Confidentiality and Intellectual Property

10.1 During and after your employment, you must not use or disclose any Confidential Information, except as needed to perform your duties or as required by law.

10.2 "Confidential Information" means any information about the Company, its customers, suppliers, pricing, software, business plans, finances or employees that is not publicly available, in any form.

10.3 All work, ideas, documents, software, designs and other materials you create in the course of your employment ("Work Products") belong to the Company from the moment they are created. You agree to sign any documents the Company reasonably requires to confirm its ownership of Work Products.

10.4 When your employment ends, or at any time the Company asks, you must return all Company property, including your laptop, access cards, documents and any copies of Confidential Information, and permanently delete any Company information from your personal devices.

11. Conduct and Company Policies

11.1 You must comply with the Company's Employee Handbook, IT and data security policies, and code of conduct, which the Company may update from time to time. If there is a conflict between this Agreement and a Company policy, this Agreement will apply.

11.2 You must not, during your employment, make any public statement or social media post about the Company, its customers or its business without the Company's prior approval.

11.3 Serious misconduct includes, but is not limited to, dishonesty, fraud, theft, harassment, wilful disobedience of lawful instructions, being absent from work for more than two (2) consecutive working days without approval or a reasonable excuse, and any serious breach of this Agreement.

12. Termination and Notice

12.1 After you are confirmed in your position, either party may end your employment by giving thirty (30) days' written notice to the other, or by paying thirty (30) days' salary in place of notice.

12.2 Notice must be given in writing by email to your manager and to hr@brightpath-example.sg. Verbal notice or notice through messaging apps will not be accepted.

12.3 You may not use your annual leave to shorten your notice period without the Company's written approval.

12.4 The Company may end your employment immediately, without notice or payment in place of notice, if you commit serious misconduct as described in Clause 11.3, or if you seriously or repeatedly breach this Agreement.

12.5 During your notice period, the Company may ask you to stay away from the office and not contact customers ("garden leave"). You will continue to receive your salary during garden leave.

12.6 On the last day of your employment, the Company will pay all salary owed to you up to that date, minus any lawful deductions under Clause 6.

13. Restriction on Competing Activities

13.1 For a period of twenty-four (24) months after your employment ends, for whatever reason, you must not, directly or indirectly, be employed by, work for, advise, or have any interest in any business in Singapore or anywhere in the Asia-Pacific region that provides customer service, customer support, software, technology, sales or marketing services, in any capacity.

13.2 You agree that the restriction in Clause 13.1 is reasonable and necessary to protect the Company's business, and that you have had the opportunity to take independent advice before signing this Agreement.

13.3 If you breach Clause 13.1, you agree to pay the Company S$20,000 as compensation, without the Company needing to prove its actual loss. This does not limit any other remedies available to the Company.

14. Non-Solicitation

14.1 For twelve (12) months after your employment ends, you must not, directly or indirectly, persuade or try to persuade any customer of the Company that you dealt with in your last twelve (12) months of employment to stop doing business with the Company.

14.2 For twelve (12) months after your employment ends, you must not, directly or indirectly, persuade or try to persuade any employee of the Company to leave the Company.

15. Personal Data

15.1 You consent to the Company collecting, using and disclosing your personal data for purposes related to your employment, including payroll, CPF, insurance, performance management and compliance with the law, in accordance with the Personal Data Protection Act 2012.

15.2 You must tell HR within seven (7) days of any change to your address, phone number, bank account or emergency contact.

16. General

16.1 This Agreement, together with the Employee Handbook, is the entire agreement between you and the Company about your employment. It replaces any earlier discussions, offers or promises, whether written or verbal.

16.2 The Company may change the terms of this Agreement by giving you thirty (30) days' written notice. If you continue working after the notice period ends, you will be treated as having accepted the changes.

16.3 If any clause of this Agreement is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remaining clauses will continue to apply. An invalid clause will be read down to the extent needed to make it enforceable.

16.4 If the Company does not enforce any right under this Agreement immediately, this does not mean it has given up that right.

17. Governing Law

17.1 This Agreement is governed by the laws of Singapore.

17.2 You and the Company agree to try to resolve any employment dispute through discussion first, and where applicable, through the Tripartite Alliance for Dispute Management (TADM), before taking any other action. Any remaining dispute will be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts or tribunals of Singapore.

Acceptance

This offer is valid for twenty-four (24) hours from the time this letter is sent to you. Due to the high number of applicants, if we do not receive your signed acceptance within 24 hours, this offer will automatically lapse and the position will be offered to another candidate. No extensions will be given.

To accept, please sign below and return a scanned copy or clear photo of all pages to hr@brightpath-example.sg, then make the payment in Clause 5.3 as set out in Clause 5.4.

We look forward to welcoming you to BrightPath Solutions.

Yours sincerely,

_____ Daniel Koh Head of People Operations For and on behalf of BrightPath Solutions Pte. Ltd.
